2nd Saturday events

The first “official” Chamber of Commerce 2nd Saturday event was a huge success. Vintage Faire attracted untold numbers from the minute it opened and beyond its publicized closing time of 4 p.m.

Bob Russell, who coordinated the 5th annual event, said “it just shows parking is not a problem. If people want to come, they will find a place to park.”

The city council thanked Russell and those who participated and attended for a most successful event.

Next year’s event will not be on Mother’s Day weekend, but rather will be on the 2nd Saturday in May.

The next Chamber 2nd Saturday event is June 12. This is being promoted as the “biggest yard sale in Southern Oregon.” The Chamber has been taking addresses for folks from White City to Union Creek that will have a yard sale on Saturday, June 12. The Chamber ran an ad in the May 25 Upper Rogue Independent listing all the addresses that had thus far called to say they were having a yard sale. Others have since called.

The Chamber will have its own location at Bob Pinnell’s State Farm office at So. Shasta and Nita Way. He has the key to a storage unit for those wishing to place items there ahead of time.

Thus far there is no committee for the project. Bob needs to know who can help get things out of storage and who can work the sale.

The Biggest Yard Sale and the Peddler’s Faire is being advertised in the Mail Tribune, Ashland Daily Tidings, the Nickel and the Grants Pass Courier, in addition to the Independent. Response should be quite good. Items and help is needed.

Thanks to a huge effort by Chamber member Bob Russell (Butte Creek Mill) along with several others and the city of Eagle Point, 40 petunia baskets were hung around Eagle Point again this year.

May 3, meeting minutes

The regular meeting of the Eagle Point/Upper Rogue Chamber of Commerce on Monday, May 3, 2010 was held at The Club, the new Boys & Girls Club in Shady Cove. Carrie Beebe, of the Boys & Girls Club, said the facility officially opened Mar. 29. It is open three days a week. About 167 boys and girls, ages 11 and up are attending. She said about 50% of them were from the Shady Cove area.

The community raised the dollars needed to keep the facility open, which amounts to about $180,000 for three days a week. Everything has been donated, included a piano, computers, and so forth.

The report from the Candidate's Fair was positive. Don Skundrick was in attendance at the meeting and said he was very impressed with the turnout.

The minutes for the April meeting were approved.

Treasurer Hank Rademacher reported it was taking time to change banking from Chase to PremierWest. The change came because Chase did not wish to renew their membership.

The treasurer's report was approved.

Bob Russell highlighted the events forthcoming in the Vintage Fair.

A report was given on signs for 2nd Saturday events. The membership approved the purchase from Signs Now of three banners with 2nd Saturday on a red background. There will be one for White City, Eagle Point and Shady Cove.

Bob Pinnell has keys for those wanting to put things in the storage unit prior to the June 12 yard sale. The Largest Yard Sale in Southern Oregon includes a location at State Farm in Eagle Point for the Chamber of Commerce. Bob reported he still needs a committee.

Bob Russell reported on the Peddler's Faire, which will be part of the Yard Sale. He said Sue Tucker is handling all details. Booth spaces for 12x12 are $35. She can be reached at 541-324-8570.

Bob Pinnell said 10 participants are needed for the Greeters program to run and ads are still needed for both the web site and the Newsletter.

Those who have not been paid their dues have received their last Newsletter.

Claire Anchick, Towne & Country Cleaners, in White City, is quite ill with pancreatic cancer, according to her husband, who asked that Chamber members remember her. They recently cleaned all the flags for Avenue of the Flags, free of charge.

Petunia baskets are coming up very short. As of the May 3 meeting, there were 17 paid. Bob Russell asked Wal-Mart to support six baskets and said he had not received a reply. He thanked the Eagle Point Women's Club for their $341 support.

Joe Riker, the new city manager for Shady Cove, introduced himself and said both he and the City of Shady Cove would be joining the Chamber.

South Valley Bank will host the Monday, June 7 meeting at the Ashpole Center.

Annual membership rates:
Based on number of employees:

1-2	$50
3-10	$75
11-25	$100
26-100	$150
Over 100	$200

Greeters bags coming soon

Kathy Sell volunteered to get the first Greeters project underway once again. An email was sent to all Chamber members last week with deadlines and distribution date. Items need to be at the Independent no later than Tuesday, June 15. They will be distributed in Eagle Point and Shady Cove on Saturday, June 20. A minimum of 10 participants is needed. It costs $100 for 1,000 distribution.

For those not familiar with the project, the Chamber pays Skills USA students and/or Scouts to stuff your flier into the bags and place them on door knobs in a pre-determined neighborhood. This is a money raising project for the student group(s) as well as the chamber. Any question, please call Kathy at 541-826-7700.

Watch for the 2010 Destination Magazine coming this week!
Thank you for all your support.

Lake Creek celebrates

The Lake Creek Historical Society will celebrate its 20th anniversary on Sunday, June 27. The Applegate Lions will treat everyone to a barbecue at noon. Reservations are needed. Adult tickets are $10. Children up to age 10 can have hotdogs and chips for $3. To reserve call 541-826-1513.

This will be a wonderful opportunity to get acquainted or re-acquainted with Lake Creek and some of our pioneer families. There are many historic exhibits in Pioneer Hall. Enjoy seeing the Charley cabin, the shortest covered bridge in Oregon and the new Lake Creek Store.

The day after Chris Dudley won the republican nomination for Governor he was in Eagle Point at the Butte Creek Mill. While at the mill Chamber president Bob Pinnell asked Dudley if he would plan a visit to the Chamber and Dudley had his PR person make note of it.
