Three new members apply

The Membership committee has been very busy talking to businesses in White City, Shady Cove, Trail, Prospect and Butte Falls. Reports have been very positive with a number expressing an interest in joining our Eagle Point/Upper Rogue Chamber of Commerce.

Renewals are in from Eagle Point Rotary and from the Eagle Point Boosters.

Applications for new members that have been received by the secretary as of Oct. 24 include:

Jeannie Lucas, owner of Jeannie's Family Hair Care, 8163 Crater Lake Highway in White City and Gaye Gosson also of Jeannie's Family Hair Care. Jeannie can be reached at 890-4300. and Gaye's phone number is 261-9157. The Upper Rogue Community Center in Shady Cove has also submitted an application. The executive director is Steve Hauck.

Any new applications received by the next meeting will be voted on at that meeting., which is Nov. 2.

Do you know?

How many restaurants (facilities that serve food to the public) are there in the city limits of Eagle Point?

Can you name them? Would you guess 8, 12 or 16? How many are Chamber members? How many of them have you frequented? List them and compare them with our list inside.

Of note...

Lenz Chiropractic- got so involved with their business and their first child that a year has gone by since they moved from Eagle Point to their brand new facility at 3030 on Ave. H in White City. And they never found time for an official ribbon cutting. So, they are going to hold an open house on Saturday, Nov. 14 from 10 a.m. to noon. There will be a tour of their very up-to-date facility and drawings as well as refreshments.

We hope Chamber members will put the date on your calendars and take a few minutes to see the new building.

Butte Creek Mill - Artists were invited to do a pictorial rendering of the mill and/or surrounding property and enter the mill's first art contest. Paintings are on display in the lower room at the mill. The winning art will be announced on Nov. 8.

Warehouse Poker- A benefit for Boys & Girls Club will be held Sunday, Nov. 22 at 1322 Antelope Rd. Call the Warehouse Poker Tournament, it begins at noon with a BBQ. Poker starts at 1 p.m. The entry fee is $100 per person with $50 add-ons and re-buys. To register visit www.warehousepoker.com If you want to just eat and watch the event, you can do so for $20. The event is sponsored by Biomass One. For more information call Carrie at (541) 291-0061.

Eagle Point Library- The next 2nd Saturday event at the Eagle Point Library is Saturday, Nov. 14, 2-3 p.m. Two's company, J.C. Cook and Larry Cavalier, will bring vocal and keyboard selections from greats like Cole Porter, Duke Ellington and Irving Berlin when they offer the "Great American Songbook." It is free. Bring the family and enjoy.

Moozie's Café & Long Horn Saloon- They are now open on Sunday from 6:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. and closed on Monday.

The Butcher Shop- Their remodel project is well underway. Once complete, Cam will have a much larger facility and will be offering an expanded meat department for the general public.

Providence Medical Center- Will be open Nov. 7 in Creekside Center, They are moving from the Shady Cove facility to Eagle Point.

Rotary- is having a wine auction. Check with Cynda Rickert or Jonathan Bilden for details on this upcoming event.

If you have news brief, please email it to Nancy at editor@urindependent.com or fax it to 826-1340.

Ideas for your consideration

Food for thought:

One of the items on the upcoming Chamber agenda is ideas for Eagle Point's downtown.

Although not on the agenda, but items to consider for the future as the Chamber grows includes an annual dinner complete with awards. Another thought is an annual Chamber calendar that could be included in the monthly newsletter and would include specific dates for such things as Greeters distribution dates, Avenue of Flags dates for the year, regular meeting dates and other important dates for all the communities.

Is there any thought of the Chamber doing something for an individual or a family or children for the holiday?

Perhaps we should invite the newly appointed city administrator for Shady Cove to a meeting. As we expand, we need to remember to be more inclusive not exclusive.

Just some ideas to consider, food for thought.

Do you know your Upper Rogue?

How many cities and/or towns are there in the Upper Rogue? Who are the Mayors of each of these cities/towns? See inside for the answer.

EP transportation open house

Eagle Point will hold an open house on Monday, Nov. 16 at 6 p.m. to present the city's Transportation System Plan. The meeting is expected to last 1 ½ to 2 hours and will be at city hall.

The city has been working with DKS Associates Transportation Solutions out of Portland, under an ODOT grant, to create the updated plan.

Chamber members are urged to attend this meeting. This is one more opportunity to learn what is going on in your city.

Prior to the open house a session will be held with the Technical Advisory Committee and Citizen Involvement Committee (which is the planning commission).

Veteran's Day

Veteran's Day is Wednesday, Nov. 11. There will be a special ceremony on that date at the Veteran's Park by the Covered Bridge in Eagle Point to dedicate a memorial rock to veterans of the Gulf War. A special plaque will be placed on one of the large rocks at that location.

The activities will begin at 10:30 with the official dedication planned for 11 a.m. marking the 11th hour of 11th day of the 11th month in 1918 when World War I ended. The following year President Woodrow Wilson declared it Armistice Day. The high school band has said they would attend. The guest speaker will be Al Schenfisch, of Eagle Point, Commander of the V.F.W. Helen Wolgamott is in charge of the event.

The Eagle Point Senior Center will have a breakfast with special $3 price for veterans. Everyone else will be asked to pay $5.

Right now Helen is in need of funds to finish paying for this year's plaque. The plaque had to be ordered early in order to have the engraving done. Please see Helen at the meeting or call her at 830-4049 to offer financial support if you can.

We encourage a strong showing from the Chamber.

Trees have fallen, concrete and asphalt have been ground up and hauled away but soon the work in downtown Eagle Point will be complete.

Upper Rogue answers

There are two cities- Eagle Point (Mayor Leon Sherman) and Shady Cove (Mayor Ron Holthusen) and one town- the Town of Butte Falls. (Mayor Ron Ormond)

White City, Trail and Prospect are not cities or towns, but unincorporated areas as is Lake Creek. Thus they have no local governing body, but rather are governed by Jackson County.

Membership yearly rates

Based on number of employees:

1-2	$50
3-10	$75
11-25	$100
26-100	$150
Over 100	$200
